

California American Indian Recovery Services

Building Communities of Recovery

The California Rural Indian Health Board, Inc. (CRIHB) was awarded the Access to Recovery III grant from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). The California American Indian Recovery Services (CAIRS) Program will continue to offer residential, outpatient, dental, and recovery support services to American Indians/Alaska Natives (AIAN) in California. Here are the program parameters:

Contract Term: September 30, 2010 through September 29, 2014

Award Amount: $13,119,440 (approximately $3.2 million per year)

Service Area: State of California

Client Target: 8,614 over 4 years

Client Eligibility:

- California Resident and history of substance abuse
- AI/AN individual or Descendent, ages 12 and older
- Spouse or registered domestic partner of an AI/AN
- Non-AI/AN minor living in an AI/AN household
- Non-AI/AN parent or step-parent of an AI/AN minor (excluding foster parents)

Provider Profile:

- Inpatient Residential Facilities & Outpatient Clinical Programs
- Transitional/Sober Living Facilities
- Recovery Support Service Providers
- Tribal TANF Programs, Recovery Support Groups (excluding 12-step groups)

For more information about the CAIRS Program, please contact:

Vanesscia Bates, CAIRS Program Director,

Jennifer Parsons, CAIRS Care Coordinator

Darla Pikyavit, Administrative Assistant

California Rural Indian Health Board, Inc.

4400 Auburn Blvd, 2nd Floor, Sacramento, CA 95841

Phone: 916-929-9761 ~ Fax: 916-929-7246

Email format: First name.Last name@crihb.net